Five Quebec Separatists Seek Political Asylum in France

Five former Quebec separatists, involved in the kidnapping of British diplomat James Cross in Montreal in October 1970 by the Front for the Liberation of Quebec, are seeking political asylum in France, according to a Reuters news item datelined Paris, October 22. The five, who went to Cuba in exchange for Cross' release, arrived in France last year. Their initial application for political asylum in France was rejected by the Foreign Ministry on the grounds that they had already received asylum in Cuba. The five have had no difficulty in remaining in France, but want political refugee status which would allow them to find work and travel freely. Their French lawyer has claimed that while they had lived in Cuba for three years, they never sought political asylum there. A court ruling is expected shortly. (UNCLASSIFIED)

CHRONOLOGY OF SIGNIFICANT INTERNATIONAL TERRORIST ACTS

Date:	28 October 1975	Three Bombings to Protest Visit of the Shah of Iran
Place:	Turkey, Istanbul	Three bombs exploded in Istanbul the evening of 28 October apparently to protest the visit of the Shah of Iran. A Molotov cocktail-type device exploded in the garden of the Iranian Consulate and in the parking lot of the British Consulate; dynamite was used in front of the Turkish-Iranian Association Building. No personal injuries were reported, but there was property damage. No one has claimed responsibility for these bombings. (UNCLASSIFIED)
Date:	29 October 1975	American Pilot Kidnapped
Place:	Lebanon, Beirut	Herman Huddleston, an American pilot for Trans-Mediterranean Airlines, was kidnapped from his apartment by armed Palestinians the evening of 29 October. The kidnappers were suspicious of his amateur radio equipment. He was released unharmed three days later. (See Notes.) (UNCLASSIFIED)
Date:	1 November 1975	Soviet Cruise Ship Bombed
Place:	Puerto Rico, San Juan	A bomb exploded on a Soviet cruise ship docked in San Juan, causing minor damage. No group has claimed responsibility. (UNCLASSIFIED)

NOTES

Dutch Industrialist Freed by IRA Captors

Tiede Herrema, the Dutch industrialist kidnapped by two renegade members of the Irish Republican Army, was finally released on 7 November after being held captive for 36 days. (See the 7 and 21 October issues.) Eddie Gallagher and Marian Coyle--the IRA members who kidnapped Herrema on 3 October and barricaded themselves in the upstairs of a house in Monasterevin, south of Dublin, for 18 days while police occupied the lower floor--finally surrendered after a day of negotiations with the head of a police antiterrorist unit. Authorities made no concessions to the terrorists' demands, which were that three IRA members be released from prison. Gallagher and Coyle were given a hearing before a special criminal court and were ordered held in custody. Herrema, who emerged unharmed and in good health, has returned to his home in the Netherlands. (UNCLASSIFIED)

JRA Member Given Suspended Sentence by Japanese Court

Gyoja Yoshimasa, who was arrested in Canada on 22 August when he attempted to enter the U.S. with false documentation, and was deported to Japan, has been given a suspended sentence of one year's imprisonment. (See the issues of 26 August and 2 September.) According to the Japan Times of 7 November, the judge rejected the prosecution's charge that Gyoja's attempt to enter the U.S. illegally was related to the Emperor's visit. The judge explained that he believed Gyoja was repentant for his past affiliation with the Japanese Red Army. (UNCLASSIFIED)

Gunman at Belgian Embassy in Tunis Captured

Tijani Herzi, who held three Belgians hostage in the Belgian Embassy in Tunis for almost 36 hours, was captured by police on 11 November. (See the 11 November issue.) Herzi put his submachine gun down while talking on the telephone and police overpowered him. The three captives were unharmed. A fourth Belgian had been released shortly after Herzi seized the hostages. The motivation in this incident was personal; Herzi was trying to force his German-born wife, who left him in August, to return. (UNCLASSIFIED)
